HARRY F. MORSE MUST GO TO TRIAL IS COURT RULING

Made Plea of Illness to Get Postponement of Trial

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Despite his plea of illness, Harry F. Morse, must go to trial next Monday with his two brothers, Irvin and Benjamin, his father, Charles W. Morse, and four others on indictments charging conspiracy to defraud the United States in connection with wartime ship contracts. This was the decision today of Justice Stafford in the District of Columbia supreme court, after he had heard conflicting opinions of physicians as to whether young Morse had heart trouble.

When the doctors were thru the defendant was called to the stand to describe to the court symptoms of heart derangement which he claimed had been manifest since an attack of influenza last February.

In overruling the motion of Morse's counsel that their client be given a separate trial at the next session of the court, Justice Stafford said it seemed to him, considering delays already encountered and the expenses involved in such trials, that young Morse never would be tried if he were not at this time.

SAFETY DEVICE PREVENTS COLLISION

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, April 19.—A four coach Chicago & Eastern Illinois railroad suburban train was thrown from the tracks by a safety device near the city limits today just in time to avoid a collission with a Pennsylvania passenger train. The towerman at the crossing said that he did not see the Pennsylvania train until it came speeding around a bend after he had given the right of way to the suburban. Then he swung the safety derail which threw the suburban engine from the tracks.

The fireman of the suburban Joseph Baterton, of Danville, Ill., leaped from his engine and suffered a fractured leg and scores of passengers were shaken up.

ARGUMENTS IN C. E. RUTHENBERG TRIAL ARE MADE

Second Communist Trial is Started Thursday

(By The Associated Press)

ST. JOSEPH, Mich., April 19.—Charles E. Ruthenberg of Cleveland attended the communist convention in this country last year for the sole purpose of presenting a plan he had drafted for bringing the party out into the open as a legal organization, Frank P. Walsh, his attorney declared today in the opening argument for the defense in Ruthenberg's trail for criminal syndalism.

The defendant it will be shown Mr. Walsh said was not a delegate to the convention but was there as a member of the national executive committee of the party to sponsor his plans for transferring its activities to the workers' party.

The jury to try Ruthenberg was completed shortly after 2 o'clock and Charles Gore, prosecuting attorney of Berrien county, immediately opened for the state, followed by Mr. Walsh. The first witness, Sheriff George Bridgman of Berrien county, who led the raid on the communist convention will take the stand tomorrow morning.

The jury includes a county justice of the peace; a shoe merchant, who is also treasurer of the local chamber of commerce, a Standard Oil company employe who belongs to the American Legion, an employe of another oil company, and eight farmers. There are no women on the jury.

Mr. Gore described the raid on the secret convention which was held in a ravine in the lonely dune country on the shore of Lake Michigan. He explained the communists law and said the state would seek to show that Ruthenberg and the others who gathered at the convention advocated crime and sabotage and force and violence as means of bringing about an overthrow of the government and accomplishingi industrial reform.

Young Sassman, who had been a student at the University of Wisconsin, some time ago suffered a nervous collapse from overstudy, and was being treated by a local physician.

FIRST PHASE OF ACTION IN HIGH PRICE OF SUGAR

May Start Criminal Prosecutions Soon

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Criminal prosecutions may follow an injunction suit filed in New York today by the federal government to protect the public against exorbitant sugar prices.

The first phase of the government's action against the alleged sugar conspiracy was completed with the institution of the civil injunction proceedings to prevent speculative trading on the New York Sugar exchange. The criminal phase was held in abeyance but Acting Attorney General Seymour announced that it was under consideration.

Final decision regarding criminal action was said officially to be before Attorney General Daugherty who is now at Asheville, N. C.

He was personally active in drafting the injunction suit based on the Sherman anti-trust law and anti-trust provisions of the Wilson tariff act and was said to be considering a request upon the federal grand jury in New York for criminal indictment, under the conspiracy provisions of the Sherman act, of defendants, named in today's civil suit.

Another development today in the sugar situation was a report to President Harding by the tariff commission which found that duties of the new Fordney-McCumber tariff act were not a factor in the recent increase in sugar prices.

The commission declared the increase was due to other causes and that if the tariff were reduced or removed the tendency would be to decrease production of American beet sugar and increase imports of the foreign products.

The government's action in the New York injunction suit designed to close the New York Coffee and Sugar exchange and the New York Coffee and Sugar Clearing Association, Inc., to future or speculative trading in sugar was unusually speedy and vigorous. It also constituted a new and extraordinary legal development of anti-trust prosecutions in its attempt to stop speculaion on a commodity exchange a precedent which if finally established by the supreme court, government counsel said might lead to important future expansion of the Sherman law's effect.

Active Investigation.

Two months of active investigation by government agents in this country and Cuba, preceded filing of the injunction suit. The move made today was clothed in secrecy, no indication being given that the government contemplated action so drastic.

Officials explained that the civil proceedings properly came first in the government's procedure, the design being to use the injunction to prevent further increases in raw sugar prices, which are reflected to the family sugar bowl thru the wholesaler and retailer. The criminal phase logically would follow officials said, if Attorney General Daugherty determines that the evidence warrants conviction on consolracy charges of those in the alleged combination which it is charged resulted in the skyrocketing of sugar prices since early February.

Still another line of attack was probable, aimed at the profits of those involved in sugar speculations. Acting Attorney General Seymour said that in the injunction proceedings the government probably would make an additional prayer to the court "not" contained in today's petition striking at the profits of speculators. It is proposed to ask the court for an order annulling the speculative trades since February and prevent settlements being made between brokers and customers.

GOLTRA BARGE LINE RETURNED TO ST. LOUIS

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 19.—The Goltra Barge Line of four tow boats and 19 barges were returned to St. Louis today from Cairo, Ill., in accordance with a federal court order that the government which seized them, have them in the jurisdiction of the court for the eastern district of Missouri by April 21, pending the outcome of injunction proceedings instituted by Edward F. Goltra, lessee. The government asserts Mr. Goltra forfeited his contract rights for alleged failure to operate the boats.

Government Wars On Sugar Gamblers

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, April 19.—United States Attorney William Hayward filed a civil suit for the government today to enjoin the New York Coffee & Sugar exchange and its clearing association from further trading in sugar futures unless backed up by actual ownership or control of the sugar dealt with.

Subpoenas were issued for twenty-three members and officers of the exchange and its clearing association for a hearing April 30, on the application of the government for a preliminary injunction against trading in sugar futures pending a final hearing.

Investigators of the department of justice, who prepared the ground for the government's action, refused to discuss the statement of Assistant Attorney General Seymour in Washington that there was a possibility of criminal proceedings in the course of the government's investigation of the high price of sugar. They were going to attempt to do only one thing at a time, they said.

United States Attorney Hayward in a statement announcing the action of the government said:

"This is a united effort on the part of the United States officials, charged with the enforcement of the law and protection of the people of the country to make the gamblers in sugar remove their roulette wheel from the American breakfast table."

The raw sugar futures market which opened 7 to 10 points higher today than yesterday's close broke badly when news of the government's injunction proceedings reached the floor.

There was a rally and the market closed from 21 to 33 points lower than yesterday's quotations.

The spot market quotations for raw sugars were not affected by the news and one sale of 5,500 bags of Cuban raws was reported at 6⅝ cents a pound, cost and freight, the highest price recorded since 1920.

Quotations for refined granulated sugar remained unchanged at $8.60 for all refiners while refined futures were nominal.

The cotton market also was unsettled by the government's action and there was a general decline of cotton futures with light offerings.

The action of the government came as a surprise to the sugar men. It was pointed out that the government had issued subpoenas for not only present officers of the exchange and the clearing associations but also for officers of the proceding administration.

The board of directors of the sugar exchange after the close of business today met and appointed a special committee of members to co-operate with the counsel if the exchange in preparation of the exchange's defense.

Earl D. Babst president of the American Sugar Refining company in a statement today assured the housewives of the country that the sugar situation is largely in their hands to regulate.

"Don't scramble, don't hoard, don't boycott," he advised. "Buy your sugar as you need it."

His company, he said, is not a member and does not operate on the New York Coffee& Sugar exchange.

QUARREL OVER DEBT IS CAUSE OF SHOOTING

Sister of Congressman Britten is the Victim

(By The Associated Press)

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 19.—Mrs. Elizabeth Britten, who told the police she was a sister of Congressman Frederick Albert Britten of Chicago, was shot in the head twice today; Mrs. Mae Davis, a friend who shared an apartment with Mrs. Britten, surrendered to the police later and said she shot Mrs. Britten after they had quarreled over a debt according to the police. The debt was to Mrs. Brittens mother, Mrs. Charles Peach. Mrs. Britten will recover.

Mrs. Britten at the hospital said she was divorced recenly and resumed her maiden name. She said she was telephoning from her apartment to her mother at a downtown bank when a pistol report sounded behind her. She turned and saw Mrs. Davis pointing a smoking pistol at her. Two shots followed. Mrs. Britten rushed at Mrs. Davis and wrested the gun from her. Mrs. Davis fled from the scene of the shooting, while Mrs. Britten bleeding profusely telephoned for an ambulance and then seated herself to await its arrival. Mrs. Davis later surrendered to the police.

According to her statement the police said Mrs. Davis was despondent over her inability to pay her debt to Mrs. Peach and decided to shoot herself when Mrs. Britten appeared at the apartment which they shared. She turned the pistol on Mrs. Britten, the officers quoted her as saying, because she had been "hounded" for payment of the debt.

"I am sorry it happened," said Mrs. Davis. "I hope she recovers."

AIRPLANE CRASHES THRU ICE ON WAY TO RESCUE PARTY

Occupants Uninjured But Can't Get Plane Out of Ice

(By The Associated Press)

NORTHPORT, Mich., April 19.—Efforts to recue the nine men and one woman reported to be starving on South Fox Island, 18 miles off the mainland in Lake Michigan, were temporarily halted this afternoon when Lteuienant E. C. Whitehead's airplane from Selfridge Field, Mount Clemens, Mich., crashed thru the ice in Grand Traverse Bay in an attempt to make a landing.

Neither Lieutenant Whitehead nor a newspaperman who accompanied him was injured altho they were ducked in the water. The plane was not seriously damaged but it was so wedged in the breaking ice that a crew of men was unable to extricate it in time for a flight tonight, to Fox Island.

The wings rested on the ice so the plane did not sink. The ice began to break up this morning and the landing was not so solid as it was yesterday, when three men after a desperate struggle with ice floes made their way to the mainland from the island and told the story of the ten persons marooned there.

Edward Horn, 23, of Sutton's Bay, one of the three men, who fought their way from South Fox Island thru heavy ice floes and open water to Northport, denied at Traverse City today that he had said nine men and a woman were starving to death on the island.

Horn reported today at the offices of the Zapf Fruit & Package company, employes of the wood cutters on the island. He still was haggard and worn and his eyes were bloodshot, but he was not so dazed as yesterday when he told Gilman M. Dame, former state food and dairy commissioner of the plight of his companions.

Horn said he was unable to remember what he told Dame.

Horn, according to Bayard C. McAlvay, superintendent of the company carried with him a letter from Nels Ask, foreman of the wood cutters on the island, dated April 15. The letter, according to McAlvay, is as follows:

"Will write you a few lines to let you know we are still on the island. Well, some of the boys are going across and they have their time. They could have worked another week. In regard to food, I leave it to you. But the last week it has been slim, beans and potatoes, bread and black strap in place of butter. Will start over as soon as possible. The boat is in good shape."

McAlvay said he was unable to account for reports the men and women were starving unless there had been an accident or fire on the island. He said he had no report of a disaster.

General Gilbourne, secretary of the company said the party took provisions worth $1,500 with them when they left for South Fox Island in November.

SHERIFF WINS IN FLASHING OF STARS

(By The Associated Press)

WAUKEGAN, Ill., April 19.—Sheriff Edwin Ahlstrom of Lake county and Zion, Ill., police officers flashed stars at one another today in an attempt to prove who was in authority. The sheriff won the argument, smashed a Zion jail lock with an iron bar and took possession of a pool table which Chief Theodore R. Becker and George Stried, his assistant, had seized from an independent welfare association before the club members could uncrate it. Pool tables are classified by Wilbur Glenn Voliva, overseer of Zion, as "devices of the devil." The sheriff seized the table on a replevin writ.

SOCIETY INTERESTED IN SAN FRANCISCO WEDDING

Chicago, April 19.—The marriage in San Francisco today of Robert J. Dunham, former vice-president of Armour & Co., and Edith Preston Drown, a society matron of that city, was the culmination of a romance which attracted wide attention in both business and social circles in Chicago. Following the meeting of the two here six years ago, Dunham, who was said to have been slated to succeed J. Ogden Armour as head of the packing corporation, resigned and went west. Later Mrs. Drown obtained a divorce. nI 1912 Mrs. Dunham, who had remained in Chicago with her four children, also was granted a decree on the charge of desertion.

UNEMPLOYED IN POSSESSION OF GERMAN TOWN

Have Thrown Barricades Across Principal Streets

(By The Associated Press)

MULHEIM, April 19.—The business section of Mulheim is in the hands of armed unemployed tonight. About 3,000 unemployed have thrown barricades across the principal streets. There have been numerous clashes with the police and at least three men have been killed and from forty to fifty wounded, according to figures given out by the German Red Cross. This brings the total number of dead since the demonstrations began yesterday up to five.

The town hall with 300 police within, is beseiged by the unemployed who are armed with rifles obtained during the day by looting arms and munitions stores in the city. All stores are closed and the owners have barricaded the doors and windows. The police effectives are much reduced and there are no French soldiers in Mulheim. The unemployed are using paving blocks from the streets and bricks from buildings in the course of erection as barricade material.

All traffic is at a standstill and all activities are controlled by the rioters who are led by members of the communist party and are confiscating foodstuffs. It is expected that the police will have to surrender unless they receive assistance from the outside.

PROBE OF CONVICT CAMP ABUSES IS NEARING END

(By The Associated Press)

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., April 19.—The first phase of the legislative investigation into alleged convict abuses in this state, that part of it relating to the death of Martin Tabert of North Dakota, in the private camp of the Putnam Lumber company at Clara, Fla., drew near the end today with the dramatic appearance of Walter Higginbotham the camp "whipping boss."

Higginbotham, 35 years old, and standing 5 feet, 7 inches in his shoes, attired in a neat blue serge suit and silk shirt, came briskly into the committee room in response to his summons. Committee members said frankly that he belied their mental pictures of him.

Higginbotham told the committee in a few words that while he was the official "whipper" of the lumber camp, he carried on his work in a humane manner. He never administered more than ten lashes at one time, while his weekly puinishments averaged about ten, he said. He did not give Tabert more than six blows, gentle ones, he testified.

The committee announced tonight that it expected to conclude the hearing in Tabert's case Saturday.

POLICE TAKE PART IN VOTING OF D. A. R.

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 19.—With delegates worked up to a high pitch as a result of the bitter contest waged in connection with the selecion of a new president-general, ballots were cast today in the Daughters of the American Revolution's triennial election of officers.

Long lines of women filed past the tellers thruout the day. Voting was still in progress tonight with some uncertainty as to when the result would be announced.

Confusion became so great during the voting late today that police officers and firemen stationed at the hall took a hand in straightening out the lines and in preserving order. A number of the delegates were reported on the verge of hysteria, excitement in connection with the balloting proving too much for them.

The counting of ballots had not been completed when the night session adjourned and announcement was made that the result of the election would be made known tomorrow.

SEVERAL BILLS PASSED THURSDAY NONE IMPORTANT

House and Senate Make Marked Progress in Work

(By The Associated Press)

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 19.—Passage of seven bills by the senate and 10 by the house marked the Illinois assembly's progress today. The house cleared part of its calendar but incoming bills from committees soon filled it again. Adjournment was taken by the senate until Tuesday morning but the other branch will meet tomorrow to advance bills.

None of the house bills passed were of major importance. In the senate the Barr appropriation of $1,200,000 to owners of tubercular cattle destroyed by law was the heaciest measure approved.

Opponents of "junketing" trips scored a victory today when the bill of Senator Glackin, Democrat, Chicago, creating another commission to investigate the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Waterway project and appropriating $30,000 for its expenses, failed of passage. Twenty-six votes were needed and the roll call was 25 to 12. Senators Barbour, Chicago, and Swift, Libertyville, Republicans, charged creation of the commission would result in improper use of the state's money which they alleged marked a previous commission's investigation.

Senator Cuthbertson, Republican, Bunker Hill, denied the charge as a member of the previous commission.

The house could find only one measure worthy of extensive debate. It was the bill of Representative Lyon, Republican, Chicago to punish by fine and imprisonment any person who keeps, leases or patronizes a disorderly house. On the order of second reading Mr. Lyon offered an amendmentt to exempt patrons from imprisonment and this move aroused opposition on the part of several members, including Mr. Lyon's colleague from the Hyde Park district, Representative Igoe, Democrat.

Argue Over Bill

Asked by Mr. Igoe if his plea for the patrons was based on a desire to give them mercy, Mr. Lyon said, "No."

He argued that a six months or a year's jail sentence in the hands of a judge would be unwise.

Representative Lyon said the bill had been sent him by Miss Jessie Binford of the Juvenile Protective League and also was sponsored by Judge Trude of the morals court of Chicago and that the judge had approved his amendment.

Representative Castle, Republican, Barrington, replied that Judge Trude told him he preferred the bill in its original form and he and Mr. Lyon clashed.

Representative Schackenberg, Republican, Chicago, said he too had talked with the judge and that they had felt it was a question of whether the house had the moral courage to approve the provision to punish patrons.

"If you don't have any patrons, you won't have any such houses," said Mr. Igoe, and on a standing vote the amendment was tabled 88 to 1.

It is believed the Lyon bill will pass the house by a wide margin.

Representative Bandy, Republican, Marion, introduced a bill today to provide for the reading of the Bible without comment in the public schools. This proposal was embodied in the proposed new constitution defeated by the electors last winter. The judiciary committee report on liquor bills killed last night was not given the house today but will be held up a few days. A fight on acceptance of the report is expected.

A THOUGHT

Open thy mouth, judge righteously and plead the cause of the poor and needy.—Prov. 31:9.

There is in the soul a taste for the good, just as there is in the body an appetite for enjoyment —Joubert.

If you want to get into the Chamber of Commerce rooms any evening nowaday you had better go early. It is a common occurrance to have three of four committees or other gatherings in session there at the sam etime. The Chamber of Commerce program of work seems to move along without cessation.

Martin Tabert, Dakota youth, was arrested in Florida for stealing a freight train ride, was cast into prison and died of inhuman treatment. But Tabert's death was not in vain, for the circumstances surrounding his death have developed into a legislative investigation which may put an end to the cruelties practiced on prisoners.

The Illinois Rowing association is to hold its next regatta at Decatur. This convention for Decatur must have been made possible by the completion of that city's great lake.

Add another foot or two to the spillway at Lake Mauvaisterre and Jacksonville would be ready to extend an invitation to the Rowing association.

The Drama League has suggested that a secretary of art should have a place in the presidential cabinet. There is no such department now but several members of President Harding's cabinet are admitted to be artists in their particular line.

Even if you are long time resident of Jacksonville and feel that you are quite familiar with the improvements in progress it will really do you good to visit all parts of the city and gain at first hand a view of all the betterments that are under way. You'll be surprised.

The big way in which the Jacksonville new hotel program has moved along is certainly significant of the present day spirit here, and suggests that any project undertaken will be accomplished. Subscriptions from nonresidents show not only interest in Jacksonville but faith in the city and its people.

A supreme court decision is said to endanger the validity of various state laws which have been passed with emergency clauses. The decision indicates that an emergency clause is only legal if it definitely outlines facts to show that the emergency exists. Let us hope that this does not apply to city ordinances for the number that have been passed thruout the years with emergency clauses attached is legion.

Indications are for a large attendance at the military ball to be given tonight marking the opening of the new armory of the Jacksonville howitzer company. While some new enlistments have been recorded, Capt. James of the company has let it be known that additional men are needed.

It is expected that enlistments will come more readily now that the company has new and adequate facilities, but Captain James is hoping for the continued interest and co-operation of business men.

The company is a benefit locally not only because of the insurance against disorder that its presence means, but for other reasons as well. Under present rules the men in the company are paid a stipulated sum for each drill they attend and also for the time spent in camp. Thus at least $5,000 or $6,000 is brought into the channels of local business.

Possibly the greatest benefit of the company is the advantage that is thus afforded to the young men of the community for physical and military training. The company should have hearty local support.

THIS SUMMER

NEA

We've been having queer weather lately in most parts of the United States. And we may be in for a queer, unseasonal summer. The Weather Bureau in Washington reports that 1922 was the sixth year in succession with temperatures generally above normal east of the Rocky Mountains. Since nature in the long run keeps the average yearly temperature finely balanced, the reaction from these six abnormally warm years may be an abnormally cold year.

Will it come in 1923—a cold summer?

A cold summer is due, but probably not until about 1926, in line with the climax of the "55-year cycle."

Go back two cycles (110 years) from 1926 and you have 1816, "the year without a summer. Snow fell and ice formed in July in many of the northern states, and seed corn in 1816 sold as high as $4 a bushel," Herbert J. Browne writes in Henry Ford's Dearborn Independent.

Browne quotes from the diary of Charles Peirce of Philarelphia: "August, 1816 — Cheerless and cold. Northeast rains. Ice one-half inch thick. Indian corn frozen."

While 1816 was extraordinarily cold, it was merely one of the "summerless years" that come periodically. The Black Sea and the Dardanelles have been frozen over within recorded history. And in the year 1834 even the Adriatic froze.

One thing that helped make 1816 very cold, Browne writes was the explosion of a huge volcano in the Dutch East Indies in 1815. Fine volcanic dust spread through the atmosphere all over the earth, excluding much sunlight the following year, 1816.

There was, of course, no such catastrophe in 1922, and that will help keep the summer of 1923 normally warm.

Another thing favorable to a warm summer this year is the fact that the Arctic Ocean, which has a tremendous determining influence on our weather, has been exceptionally warm this winter.

Freakish conditions in the northland are reported by the American consul at Bergen, Norway. He says the cold-water fish have flocked northward. Ice caps in the arctic are retreating. In Greenland glaciers are melting and exposing ground that had been covered by ice always within the memory of the oldest inhabitants.

The scientific evidence, coupled with precedent, indicates that the summer of 1923 probably will be a warm one, and that the weather will even itself by sending us a cold summer about 1926—though possibly sooner.

BERTON BRALEY'S DAILY POEM

ONE TRAVELER

By Berton Braley

I SPEAK to nobody, nobody, nobody,
And nobody speaks to me;
For how can you know what kind of folks
These traveling folks may be?
They might be barbers, or thieves and crooks
Whose business is burglaree
So I speak to nobody, nobody, nobody,
And nobody speaks to me!

THE sociable people I always snub
Whenever they speak to me,
So I sit and read and smoke and yawn
In my own society;
A bally nuisance, to run about
On trains or on ships at sea,
For I speak to nobody, nobody, nobody,
And nobody speaks to me.

HO hum, I'm fearfully tired of myself
And the scenery that I see,
But one must maintain one's proper place
In human society,
One can't take chances of meeting those
Of humble or low degree,
So I speak to nobody, nobody, nobody,
And nobody speaks to me.

RECITAL AT I. W. C.

A recital by High School students will be given in Music Hall Monday evening, April 23, at 8:15 o'clock. A varied and interesting program has been arranged and the public is cordially invited.

HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS GAVE CLEVER PLAY

"Come Out of the Kitchen" Presented Before Large Audience —Will be Repeated Tonight.

The annual senior class play was presented at the Jacksonville high school Thursday night. "Come Out of the Kitchen," was chosen this year as the vehicle for the dramatic talent of the class. This play by A. E. Thomas was presented under the direction of Miss Helen Gorham and it is sufficient to say that it was well cast and presented with full recognition of the value of stage setting.

Comedy runs thru all the lines with here and there enough of pathos and the melodramatic to give the production added interest.

Interest in the play itself was increased by the musical program of the Elite Six orchestra including Ernest Olds, Russell Cumming, Lloyd Bieber, Byron Craig and Russell Todd, together with vocal solos my Miss Lois Harney, violin solos by George Obertate and dance numbers by Miss Mary Edith Baumgartner. The accompanists were Miss Katherine Wilson, Mr. Kritch and Miss Lois Harney.

In a home talent production in which the parts were so uniformly well done a reviewer can but follow the program and mention "the characters in the order of their appearance."

KIWANIANS PLAN TRIP TO ATLANTA

Lloyd Reid Delivers Dixie's Welcome Message to Big Convention—Rowe Appoints Committees to Arrange for Boys' Camp This Summer.

Six local Kiwanians have now decided to make the trip to the Atlanta convention of International Kiwanis, according to announcement at the meeting yesterday by Lloyd Reid, chairman of the "On to Atlanta" committee. Mr. Reid reported that great preparations are being made for the reception of the delegates in Atlanta, and read a message sent broadcast to the Kiwanis clubs of the country stating that "There's a welcome for you in Dixie." It was as follows:

Atlanta is "all set" and waiting for you, Kiwanians. Come down to Georgia and let's get acquainted.

Bring your fox-trotting shoes and your appetites. You'll find plenty of use for them.

Atlanta Kiwanis is thinking of nothing else but making you happy and glad you came. Everybody's on a committee, and everybody's working.

Get here on the first day, so you won't miss anything, for there's going to be something on the program for every minute, except between 3:00 A. M. and bedtime. We've left that open.

We hope—and expect—to say: "The biggest and best convention International Kiwanis ever held," but that's largely up to you. Your committees have arranged the finest program ever; we've framed the greatest entertainment features—but neither will be a success without you!

Several special trains are scheduled; others are coming by steamship and some by automobile. There may be some by airplane. We don't care if you walk—just so you come!

All Georgia and the South join Atlanta in this invitation. Make your reservations now, through your club secretary.

"You'll be glad you came to Dixie in the Springtime."

President Rowe explained the plan of organizing the Camp for Unprivileged Boys, which the Kiwanis club is arranging to maintain this summer. He appointed committees to arrange for the camp and see to the financing of the enterprise.

Arrangement committee to provide ways and means getting down to camp, provision and supervision. Program, boat trip, movies and such entertainment—John Larson, Bill Fay, Garm Norbury, Ed. Tomlinson.

Finance committee providing seven day outing at cost of $5.00 per boy. 32 boys, total expense, $160.00. Cost per Kiwanis member $2.50, each Kiwanis member providing 3½ day outing for a boy—John Johnson, Tunis Archer, Charley Williamson, Felix Farrell.

DECIDE ON PLAN FOR NEW BEREAN CHURCH

Building Committee Makes Definite Arrangements to Model Church After That at Barrow Station—Expect to Have the Building Completed by Last of August.

Definite plans were made yesterday for the building of the new Berean church. The building committee, consisting of Harrison Robinson, Walter Robertson, Charles Swain and L. J. Stewart, spent most of the day at Barrow Station, where they inspected the new Baptist church now practically completed. The committee decided that the new Berean church should be modeled after the church at Barrow, but would be somewhat larger. The Barrow Baptist church is to be dedicated next Sunday. Rev. Joseph Jenkins of White Hall is the pastor.

The Berean committee have already raised about $10,000 for the new church and expect to secure $2,000 additional funds. An architect has already been consulted, and plans and blue prints are being made. It is expected, if possible, to have the church ready for dedication at the time of the annual chicken fry, which occurs the last Thursday in August.

It is yet to be decided what is to be done with the old church. If it is wrecked, the membership is planning to hold services in a nearby school house until the new building is completed. Work on the new church will begin as soon as the plans are ready and the contract can be let.

STARTLING FACTS ON FIRE LOSS REVEALED

Richard E. Vernor Speaks to Kiwanians on Fire Disasters and How to Prevent Them—Pictures of Great Fires Impress Audience

Richard E. Vernor, who is engaged in the state actuarial bureau as a speaker on fire prevention, made a stirring address at the Kiwanis club meeting yesterday, in which he gave some startling facts and figures on the nation's fire loss. Accompanying the address were two reels of motion pictures, showing the destructive work of disastrous fires and how many of them were started thru carelessness.

The fire loss in this country is largely a matter of life. In civilized America, 15,000 persons annually burn to death, 33 per cent of whom are women and children. Most of the fires are in the homes, and most of these homes contain from one to fifty fire hazards. Each year 17,000 persons are injured, many of them maimed and disfigured for life, as a result of fires.

One billion dollars a year is a fair estimate of the total fire loss. The actual figures show $505,000,000 worth of property burned to ashes. America burns each day of the year more than 800 dwellings, five schoolhouses, five churches and one hospital. During the past year the state of Michigan burned 114 churches, 66 schools and 13 hospitals. An investigation revealed 89 defects in the Ann Arbor high school, any one of which might prove a cause of fire.

Three Kinds of Causes

There are three kinds of causes for fire in the United States: natural, moral and physical. Natural causes include lightning, tornado and earthquake. The moral causes are summed up in arson and wilful neglect. The speaker told of a man found guilty of arson and sentenced to life imprisonment. He stated that such a punishment was none too severe for such a crime.

Sometimes buildings are allowed to accumulate fire hazards and even to burn, because the owner doesn't care and would rather have the insurance than the property. The physical causes are numerous, many of them due to carelessness. A man throws a cigarette in a pile of leaves in the woods, causing a disastrous forest fire. A woman leaves the electric iron turned on while she answers the phone or gossips with a neighbor, an act which has caused fires with losses running into the millions. The pictures shown by Mr. Vernor gave many other examples of carelessness and showed the fatal results.

The speaker made a plea for education in methods of fire prevention. He told how a number of cities have cut down their annual fire loss very materially by campaigns of fire prevention. He advised the citizens to have the best fire fighting equipment, and to stand firmly behind the chief in his efforts to insure the city adequate fire protection.

The last reel of pictures shown was in colors, and the terrible fires which were shown at their height made a profound impression on the audience. The powerful fire boats which aid in fighting the conflagrations on the water fronts were shown in action. One monster fighter threw eight streams, with a total capacity of 6,000 gallons per minute. The final scene was the fire which destroyed scores of summer cottage at Arverne. Every house was ablaze, and the scene was wild and wierd beyond description.

Mr. Vernor stated that a city which has 30 per cent of its roofs made of shingles is subject to conflagration. Wherever the fire hazards of a city have been reduced by education and conscientious effort to improve conditions insurance rates have decreased proportionately.

SPRINGFIELD WEDDING WAS IMPORTANT EVENT

Miss Elizabeth Vandeveer of Edinburg and H. Jones Drury of Orleans Were United in Marriage Thursday Night.

Springfield, April 19.—A very pretty wedding was that at First M. E. church here Thursday night when Miss Elizabeth Vandeveer of Edinburg became the bride of H. Jones Drury of Orleans. The ceremony was performed at 8:30 o'clock by Rev. Thomas W. Smith, pastor of Westminster church in Jacksonville.

Preceding the ceremony a half-hour recital was given by R. Albert Guest, organ, John Taylor, violin, and John Stewart, 'cello.

The trio played the wedding march as the bridal party entered the church, and also played softly as the ceremony preceded.

The bride entered upon the arm of her father, A. H. Vandeveer. The maid of honor was Miss Ruth McWhirt of Des Moines, Iowa, a cousin of the bride and the brides-Misses Elizabeth Penick and Caroline Dorwin of Springfield and Miss Annabel Drury of Jacksonville. Charles Drury of Jacksonville, a brother of the groom, was the best man and the ushers were Horace Witty and Harry Tomlin of Pleasant Plains, Harry Smith of Springfield and Harry Cain of Jacksonville.

After the wedding a reception and dance was given at the Leland Hotel, the guest list numbering two hundred persons. Music was furnished by the John Taylor orchestra of Springfield. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Thomas Masters and Mrs. Fred Buck, Jr., of Springfield and Mrs. Buel Swope of Edinburg.

Mr. Drury and his bride left later in the evening for a wedding trip and will be at home after June 1st at the Drury farm near Orleans.

The bride in this ceremony is the daughter of one of the prominent families of Sangamon county and the wedding was one of the most important events of the season.

Mr. Drury, who is also prominently connected, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Drury of Morgan county. After attending Illinois college he took a special course at the University of Illinois and so was well trained for the management of the extensive farming and livestock interests of the Drury farm.

Among Jacksonville people who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Williamson, Miss Carrie Mackness, Miss Eleanor Masters, her guest Mrs. C. F. Wilson, Miss Esther Davis, Miss Marie Wiswell, William DeBolt, Harry Cain, William Berryman and William Floreth.

Misses Mary and Martha Brockhouse of Chapin spent the day Wednesday, shopping in Jacksonville.

WHITE HALL TO ISSUE ELECTRIC PLANT BONDS

Recent Election Authorized Issuance of $54,000 in Bonds for Erection of Municipal Plant.

White Hall, April 19.—The results of the city election were canvassed by the city council Wednesday, and the declared results were in conformity with previous reports. The voting of bonds in the amount of $54,000 for the establishment of a municipal electric system, has brought to White Hall wide attention. Mayor H. W. Roodhouse stated today that there will be no action by the council before the regular May meeting, when the new council organizes, and it is not likely that any action will be taken at that time on the issuance of bonds. This means that the proposition is to be approached slowly and cautiously.

The breach thus made between the city and the Central Illinois Public Service Company has not gone beyond the stage of conference and the light of events of the few days that have elapsed since the election.

In the campaign on the electric bond issue, Mayor Roodhouse states that he did not approach any citizen on the subject, nor ask anyone to vote for him, but that he was always ready to give out information when requested. The issue was fought by the C. I. P. S. Co., and the city officials took an attitude that the voters were familiar with the issue from the previous campaign in 1916, when bonds for this purpose in the amount of $30,000 were defeated by the C. I. P. S. Co. This did not deter the C. I. P. S. Co. from engaging in a publicity campaign at the election this week The city issued only one statement. This was because it had agreed that in the event the bond issue lost, another election would be called in ninety days, and the bond issue would be given thorough publicity.

The C. I. P. S. Co. is now operating under a franchise that expires in August, 1924, but has no contract with the city. The common opinion is that the utilities is operating under a contract without a franchise, an erroneous impression that this statement will correct.

CARTHAGE DEFEATED ILLINOIS IN DEBATE

Both Teams Lose Decision Two to One— Good Sized Audience Heard Debate Here.

The Carthage negative team won from our affirmative team in Jones' Chapel yesterday evening by a two to one decision. The judges were as follows: Dean Rickert of Lincoln College, Lincoln, Ill., Prof. Kelso of James Millikin University, Decatur, Ill., and Rev. G. W. Randle of Brooklyn Methodist church of this city. The point system was used by one of the judges, his results of 244 points for Carthage and 240 for Illinois shows how very evenly matched the two teams were and the small margin by which Carthage won.

President Rammelkamp gave a short address welcoming the visiting team which consisted of D. Kabel, Geo. Arbaugh and Walter Japsen. The Illinois affirmative team consisted of Merrel Barlow, Wayne Snowden, and Benjamin Negus.

The question of debate was: "Resolved that Japanese citizens should be accepted for naturalization into the United States."

The first constructive speaker for the affirmative was Mr. Snowden. He upheld the issue, "The Japanese are capable of assimilation."

The first constructive speaker for the negative was Mr. Kabele, who upheld the issue, "The Japanese government does not favor naturalization and that a dual citizenship exists."

The second constructive speaker for the affirmative was Mr. Negus, who upheld the issue, "That the Japanese are an economic benefit to the United States."

The second constructive speaker for the negative was Mr. Arbaugh, who upheld the issue, "The Japanese will not become desirable citizens because of dual citizenship and lack of assimilation."

The third speaker for the affirmative was Mr. Barlow, who upheld the issue, "That we are under moral obligation to accept the Japanese as citizens."

The third speaker for the negative was Mr. Japsen, who upheld the issue that, "The actions of the Japanese do not warrant citizenship and the American people are against it."

After the rebuttals, the decision was rendered as above.

The negative team of Illinois College was also defeated at Carthage by a decision of 2 to 1.

C. OF C. DIRECTORS HELD MEETING

Plans for Patriotic Event in June will Receive Support— Other Affairs Also Discussed

Directors of the chamber of commerce met in regular weekly session Thursday night, with R. Y. Rowe presiding. Dr. E. L. Hill, Col. O. C. Smith and H. E. Kahl were present to explain to the directors some additional facts with reference to the convention of Spanish American war veterans to be held here in June, and the dedication of the soldiers hospital which will occur during the convention.

Budgets totaling about $1,700 for expenses in connection with these events were outlined. The directors went on record as approving the plans and pledging co-operation for the finance committee already appointed for the raising of the necessary funds.

Major General Allen of the regular army is but one of the distinguished visitors to be present and the plans are such that thousands are expected here for the convention events of the dedication.

Secretary Welch presented a letter from the alumni association of the School for the Deaf, asking certain co-operation in arranging for a reunion and baseball contest between the team from the Illinois school and the Iowa school.

The directors outlined the assistance that is possible to give this project. A resolution was adopted suggesting the co-operation of the chember of commerce members in the campaign to raise $100,000 for Illinois Woman's college. It is the understanding that such a campaign is to begin within a few weeks and for every dollar pledged here $5 will be secured by the college authorities from other soarces.

MIGHT CALL IT SALT FARM

Salton Region of California Is Devoted to the Production of That Indispensable Article.

Passing through that portion of California known as the "Salton" one sees stretched out below him long rows of what appear to be haycocks of a curious design. These constitute a part of what is called the "salt farm," and the haycocks are in reality great cones of salt. Upon investigation one will find that the basin of land into which he is gazing is between 200 and 300 feet below the level of the sea and that something like a thousand acres of this land are covered with a vast deposit of salt.

Each year there are removed more than 2,000 tons of salt. The salt is first plowed into ridges, then piled into conical heaps, eventually going to the drying house. From this it proceeds to the crushing mill.

It is an easy matter to mistake this area for a field of snow, because it is almost pure white, if one did not know that snow does not fall in that quarter. The supply of salt is being constantly renewed by deposits from the waters of salt springs flowing into this basin.

To remove the salt the services of Indian workmen are utilized, since these are the only men who can withstand the terrific heat and the glare of the June sun, for it is in that month that the work is done. The temperature often reaches 150 degrees.

TABLE PLACES IN CLUBS

Position Indicates to Service Staff the Kind of Meal Desired by the Patron.

At least one New York club has adopted the north end of the table plan which is in vogue at army and navy clubs in Washington and elsewhere. The system affords a simple method of making distinction between members who are at late breakfast and those who are at early luncheon.

"When a member comes in after 11 o'clock in the morning and before luncheon," said a steward, observes the New York Sun, "the waiters are instructed to ask whether he wants breakfast or luncheon. If the former he is placed at the north end of the table as a sign to the service staff that his is to be a breakfast order. Then when the early arrival for luncheon appears he is placed at the south end of the table.

"The system saves confusion. The breakfast order calls for an entirely different 'layout' of silver from that required for luncheon, and of course the menu is different."

Character of Epic.

The action which springs out of character, and reflects character, alone satisfies the higher dramatic conditions. Here there is a marked difference between epic and dramatic poetry. The epic poem relates a great and complete action which attaches itself to the fortunes of a people, or to the destiny of mankind, and sums up the life of a period. The story and the deeds of those who pass across its wide canvas are linked with the larger movement of which the men themselves are but a part. The particular action rests upon forces outside itself. The hero is swept into the tide of events. The hairbreadth escapes, the surprises, the episodes, the marvelous incidents of epic story, only partly depend upon the spontaneous energy of the hero. The tragic drama, on the other hand, represents the destiny of the individual man.—S. H. Butcher.

Foot Covering, Old and New

The sandal is the most ancient foot covering of which we have any record, and samples of very ancient manufacture, taken from Egyptian mummies, are preserved in public collections. In medieval times shoes with long, pointed toes were worn by the high-born, and toward the end of the Fourteenth century these points became ridiculously elongated, so that there appeared to be a long strap projecting from each foot. Different kinds of half boots were worn by the Anglo-Saxons and Anglo-Normans, and in the reign of Edward IV, if not earlier, the boot proper, with tops and spurs, was established as an article of knightly dress. Factory-made boots and shoes are now entirely cut out by machinery; the uppers are sewn by strong sewing machines and soles and uppers are fastened together by machine. The factory trade in boots and shoes has, since 1800, undergone a remarkable development.

Horses' Pedometers.

The whorls of hair on the coats of horses and other animals may be called animal pedometers, because they register the locomotive activities of the creatures on whose bodies they are found. The best examples and the greatest number of these hairy whorls and crests are found on the domestic horse. A notable instance is the graceful feathering that extends along the hollow of the flank, dividing quarters. There are also crests and whorls on the horse's chest and other parts of its body.

Child—For keeping the fox warm, of course.—The Scotsman.

KITCHEN CUPBOARD

By NELLIE MAXWELL

DO YOU LIKE ONIONS?

THE onion is one of the most wholesome of our vegetables. The families who serve them once or twice a week in various ways, cooked or uncooked, will be (other things being normal) the least subject to prevailing diseases.

The onion is soothing to the nerves, a sleep producer, allays inflammation of the mucous membranes and is a fine antiseptic. One of the most appetizing of ways of serving this odoriferous bulb is to throw it or as many as will be eaten, onto a bed of coals to roast. The peeling is not removed; that will be charred; after removing the outside, cut up and dress with butter, pepper and salt.

A stuffed onion is another very tasty dish. The onions are of uniform size to be chosen for this dish—as large as one's appetite for them; parboil and then take out the centers. Chop the centers and save for another dish, or they may be mixed with the filling and put back into the cavity. Fill with chopped cooked ham, bread crumbs and seasonings, or with sausage, or with chopped nuts nd other seasonings such as peanut butter, cheese or any desired filling.

Onions Stuffed With Peppers—Parboil until nearly done six onions of good size. Remove the centers, chop and mix with finely chopped green peppers that have also been parboiled. Season well, fill the onions and bake surrounded by a white sauce. Baste while baking with butter.

Onion Sandwiches.—Those who really find the onion pleasing to the taste will enjoy a slice, seasoned with French dressing for a filling for a sandwich.

Onion Relish.—Take one large onion grated, add one-half cupful of celery juice, grind the celery and press out the juice; one teaspoonful of mustard, ten drops of tabasco, one teaspoonful of salt and celery seed, four well-beaten egg yolks blended with the salt and mustard, and two tablespoonfuls of olive oil, twenty capers and one-fourth of a cupful of vinegar. Serve with game.

RADIO TALKS FOR FARMERS.

Many farmers in this locality will be interested in knowing that tonight at 8 o'clock John W. Gamble, who is president of the Standard Chemical Co., of Omaha, will give the second of a series of radio talks to farmers thru the Palmer broadcasting station at Davenport.

Mr. Gamble's subject will be "Farm Sanitation," and among other things he will emphasize the advantage there is to farmers in buying products of established reputation from reputable dealers rather than taking the chance of making their purchases from peddlers of solicitors whom they may never see again. Mr. Gamble frequently addresses meetings of farmers on subjects in which they are vitally interested.

Now, a Quick Quaker Oats

Cooks in 3 to 5 minutes

The quickest cooking oats in the world

Now your grocer has Quaker Oats in two styles. One the kind you have always known—the other is Quick Quaker.

Quick Quaker cooks in from 3 to 5 minutes. And it cooks to perfection. So it is almost like a ready-cooked dish.

No other oat flakes on the market cook anywhere near so quickly.

The two styles are identical in quality and flavor. Both are flaked from the finest grains only—just the rich, plump, flavory oats. A bushel of choice oats yields but ten pounds of these delicious flakes.

But in Quick Quaker the oats are cut before flaking. They are rolled very thin and partly cooked. So the flakes are smaller and thinner—that is all. And those small, thin flakes cook quickly.

Ask for Quick Quaker if you want this style. Your grocer has both. But always get Quaker Oats for their delightful flavor.

LARGE CROWD HEARS RAYMOND IN LECTURE

Business Expert Delivers Address on "You" — Tells Audience There Are Four Sides to Success, Health, Honor, Disposition and Money.

An audience that completely filled the American Legion hall Thursday evening heard the first of Frank Jewel Raymond's lectures on "Making Good in Business." Mr. Raymond gave a clear-cut and forceful discussion of the subject, "You." His address was directed at the individual business man, salesman, clerk, or office worker, and everything he said was for the purpose of making that individual believe in himself. He said in part:

"Intelligent self interest pays interest. You are sorted in your community according to your worth, and your worth to yourself, your family and you to your community, as well as to the firm for which you work, depends on how much you are watched. We all have to be watched because of our weakness. On the athletic field you will not stand for any letting down by the players. They must put in their best for the game. You should stand for no less from yourself in business. A firm in New York manufactures and sells $50,000 gross of lead pencils, with rubbers on one end. The rubbers are to rub out the mistakes we make with the other end of the pencil, and how much we use them depends on the number of mistakes. If there were no mistakes, the rubbers would be unnecessary. However, because of our weakness we all make mistakes. The real difference between us lies not in what we have, but in how we use what we have.

"I learned the definition of friendship from a boy in Des Moines. He said: 'Friends is people who knows all about you, and likes you anyway.' We all have too much time to gossip. Talk about others will get there without the help of a messenger boy.

"I am here to prove to you that your next door neighbor is as good as you are, and that you yourself are better than you think you are. There are no complimentary tickets to the theater of success; but you may be a 100 per cent success and not know it.

"Each one of us is like a city; we have limits and there are channels by which ideas can enter our life, as raw material enter a city. There are the five senses, and then there is a sixth sense, intuition, a quality more highly developed in women than in men. Intuition is the knack of forming judgment without the process of reasoning.

"We are all divided into three parts, body, mind and soul. On the last of these I have no right to speak, as I am not a minister. I can only say that whatever religion or belief you follow is what you have been taught. I was raised a Quaker, and I lean that way. What would give give me satisfaction, would not suit you. Stick to your belief; it is the means by which you worship God, and you can get soul food that way.

"Now what do we do with the mind: We receive, retain and radiate, take in, hold and give out. We take in information, and we should be observant. There have been many mistakes and tragedies, all because people failed to be observant. In retaining information, we use three rooms in the brain: The work room or telephone exchange, where the ideas are received; the memory or store room, and the imagination or assembly room. When any individual fails to use these rooms and is lacking in some part of his mental makeup, he has a room for rent. Think it over, put it over, and you won't have to do it over, and you won't overdo it.

"There are three kinds of judgment: poor judgment, prejudice and good judgment. I am going to give you two don'ts this evening. Don't use the term old maid, and don't call a man a failure. You may not know all the facts, and to say these things shows poor judgment. There is many a woman in the shop or store who sacrificed in her youth days the chance to have a home, because she heard the call of duty to care for loved ones.

"Before you judge a man a failure, remember that there are four sides to success, and you can give each one 25 points. They are health, a sound body that radiates a pleasing personality, honor, the bearing of a good name; disposition, the ability to live and work in harmony with others; and finally money. Some people rank money above everything, but what will it get you? Four things: Food, shelter, clothing and recreation. If you are disgusted with yourself, it is not because you haven't enough food, clothing and shelter, but usually because you can't get the kind of recreation you want in sufficient quantity. Money will not buy any of the other three sides of success; but these three will enable you to get the fourth."

WOMEN HEARD FINE ADDRESS YESTERDAY

County League of Women Voters Addressed by Miss Edith Rockwood at Tea Tray Thursday Afternoon.

Miss Edith Rockwood, executive secretary of the State League of Women Voters, made an address Thursday afternoon before members of the Morgan county branch of the league. The address followed the serving of luncheon at 1 o'clock at the Tea Tray, thirty or more women being in attendance.

Reports were made by Dr. Grace Dewey and Mrs. A. L. Adams of the national convention of the League of Women voters which they recently attended at Des Moines.

The speaker of the afternoon was introduced by Mrs. W. S. Jones, acting president of the Morgan county league.

Miss Rockwood discussed the County League of Women Voters as a part of the national movement. She declared that to accomplish the task of educating women for citizenship there should be a league in every county, so that these county leagues may in turn reach out into every precinct. Mrs. Maude Wood Park, the president of the National League of Women Voters, said last week in Des Moines that less than 50 per cent of the women qualified to vote exercised this right in the last presidential election. She charged the League of Women Voters with the securing of a 75 per cent vote in the next presidential election.

Continuing Miss Rockwood said: "Here in Illinois almost 75 per cent of the men voted at the last presidential election while 47 per cent of the women voted. To bring the percentage up to the desired point we must interest more women in public questions, because once they have the information there is no difficulty in getting them to vote.

Friend of Party Organizationsh.

"The county League of Women Voters is the friend of the party organizations because it arouses the interest of women in government and urges them to take active part in that government. It is a friend of other organizations, clubs, churches, etc., because it gathers information on local, state and national questions and gives it to these organizations and helps them to secure the right kind of speakers for their programs.

"Each county league must study its own local government needs and then present the information to the county. One essential of democratic government is that the people know what is going on. Of course every one who belongs to a county League of Women Voters belongs also to the state league and receives the monthly bulletins which are published by the state league, so that at the time you are working locally you share in what is being done by the state.

"Miss Julia Lathrop is the president of the Illinois League of Women Voters and under her leadership our women are very eager to do their share in Illinois government. There are certain special questions which are now interesting the women of Illinois. One of them is the schools and the modernizing of the state school system. Another question in which women are especially interested in the passage of the Sheppard-Towner enabling act, which provides for federal aid for the promotion of the hygiene of maternity and infancy. Another law which women would like to see placed upon the statute books of the state is the eight hour day for women workers.

Arvises Citizenship School.

"The county league, with its membership made up of women from all parts of the country, will find it advisable to hold meetings in different parts of the county, and to have the members in the different towns meet together to study their own municipal situation and to do whatever they can to help better that situation.

"A very successful three day citizenship school has just been conducted at Moline by the Rock Island County League of Women Voters. This school followed a series of four one-day schools held in January in different towns in the county. It is probable that the Morgan county league will want to have such a series of schools in this county, and I heartily recommend this course.

A brief business session was held proceeding the address when the constitution and by-laws were adopted and various matters given attention. It was decided to launch a membership campaign at the May meeting, which is to be held at the Tea Tray at a date to be announced later. It is also planned to organize study classes in different precincts as fast as this is feasible, the aim of the Morgan county branch being to have in every precinct of the county women who are studying government and its operations.

The voters' hand book of Illinois will be used as a text book and it is hoped that every woman of the county will avail herself of the opportunity of securing one of these books.

The guests present at the luncheon were:

Mrs. A. L. Adams, Mrs. J. H. Danskin, Mrs. A. F. Kitner, Mrs. Walter C. Bradish, Mrs. B. F. Shafer, Mrs. A. Weihl, Mrs. Frank Green, Mrs. George T. Hollinger, Miss Mary Wadsworth, Mrs. H. W. English, Mrs. W. C. Cleary, Mrs. Thomas J. Smith, Miss Edith Rockwood, Dr. Grace Dewey, Miss Mary Anderson, Miss Lobdell, Mrs. Nellie Merrill, Miss Helen Miner, Miss Austin, Mrs. F. M. Roberts, Chapin; Mrs. W. D. Roberts, Mrs. R. Y. Rowe, Mrs. Herbert Capps, Miss Fowler, Mrs. C. H. Rammelkamp, Miss M. Cutler, Mrs. A. B. Applebee, Mrs. E. E. Hart, Mrs. W. S. Jones.

INSTITUTE SPEAKER PRAISES MARK TWAIN

Great Humorist Given Tribute by Prof. Somerville at Meeting Yesterday — Dr. Brokaw to Speak Today.

Good lectures and interesting periods of instruction marked the first day of the county teachers' institute at the high school auditorium yesterday afternoon. One of the most interesting addresses was made by Prof. P. C. Somerville at the afternoon session, when he spoke on "Mark Twain as a Teacher." Prof. Somerville is an interesting and dramatic speaker. He gave the great American humorist high praise for his clean and wholesome presentation of American life.

The speaker said that Mark Twain's works set forth three principal things: cheer, democracy and truth. Mark Twain was never irreverent toward the real and sacred things of life and eternity. He did ridicule the shams and hypocricies of institutions. His humor was never harsh, and tho he himself did not live a life of complete happiness, he always tried to instill a cheerful element into his works.

Mark Twain's kind of democracy meant the wholesome life which he found in the early d of the American pioneers. He was born at Florida, Mo., a little town of sixty-two inhabitants. He lived everywhere in America and he knew its life. In telling of the customs of people abroad, he always threw them into contrast with the healthy democracy of the United States.

Dr. R. V. Brokaw will be one of the speakers at the institute session this morning. R. E. Vernor, the state fire prevention worker, gave an interesting talk to the teachers yesterday afternoon.

MINSTREL FROLIC NEARS COMPLETION

Five Episodes of Lively Play—Large Number of Local People in Cast — Will be Equal to Professional Production.

The Grand will be filled Monday and Tuesday evenings, April 23-24, it is expected, for the "Minstrel Follies" which the Dokays are presenting.

There are 5 episodes in the production, each being a show within itself. The best talent obtainable in Jacksonville will entertain with their jokes, songs and dance hits.

The production is staged by Harrington Adams, Inc., and is as lavishly costumed and equipped as any profesional show on the road today. All costumes and scenery are of silk and satin. The dances were arranged especially for this production by one of the best dancing masters in the profession and the jokes and gags will keep the audience in a steady uproar.

The first part minstrel setting alone is one of gorgeous splendor. Nothing can compare with the magnificence of artistry, in the setting of the stage and costuming which is indescribable in brief space. It must be seen to fully appreciate the beauty of the combination.

The olio or second part of the minstrel is a combination of the same theme that embellished the first part. Gorgeousness dominates. In the Indian number, which is based on an old Indian legend, opportunity affords itself for real dramatic art as well as beautiful and wierd Indian melodies written in an atmosphere that brings the hearer to the visualization of the life of the early inhabitant of this hemisphere, yet it closes with a climax that —ah, but that would be telling.

Then we continue thru a hilarious half hour while "West goes East" and struggles thru the old customs of that country of habits.

From the far east we return to America again and are entranced with a bevy of beautiful maids in a series of terpsichorean evolutions that charm the eye and fill us with gladsome thoughts of when we were young and lived in their world. After this bit of sunshine and melody we reluctantly leave our seats after two hours and a half of enjoyment that has been all too short. We leave the theatre with a feeling in our mind of having seen and heard a great assemblage of beautiful melodies, set in a frame of lavishness in the way of wardrobe and scenic equipment, that has never been surpassed on any stage in America.

ANOTHER BOOST FOR HOTEL CAMPAIGN

Former Mayor Rolla Wells of St. Louis Subscribes $1,000—Message from E. F. Goltra to M. F. Dunlap Brought—More Local Subscriptions Received

Further impetus was given the hotel campaign yesterday when M. F. Dunlap received a telegram from Edward F. Goltra, who is a member of the board of directors of the Ayers National bank, stating that former Mayor Rolla Wells of St. Louis would subscribe $1,000.

In a telephone conversation with Mr. Goltra a day or two since the matter of such a subscription from Mr. Wells was mentioned and the telegram indicated that the St. Louis man looked upon the matter with favor.

It will be remembered that Mr. Wells, who in addition to being former mayor of St. Louis, was at one time the governor of the federal reserve bank of the 7th district, was in Jacksonville last June when he delivered the address at the commencement exercises of Illinois college and was awarded an honorary degree. Mr. Wells has local connection as he is related to the Henry family of Woodson and spent some of the earlier years of his life in Morgan county.

Other subscription received during the day reported to the committee totaled $500, so that the total fund is now $202,500. The additional local subscriptions were made by the following:

Jake Magid	$100
H. M. Edgerton	100
Arthur L. Conlee	100
T. W. Beadle	100
Homer G. Bradney	100

Mr. Dunlap in acknowladging Mr. Goltra's telegram mentioned the fact of Mr. Wells' visit to Jacksonville and suggested the possibility that his recollection of the local hotel facilities had some influence in his determination to subscribe.

Mr. Goltra's telegram read as follows:

St. Louis, Mo.,
Apr. 19, 1923.

M. F. Dunlap,
Ayers National Bank,
Jacksonville, Ill.

Honorable Rolla Wells will subscribe for ten shares and I for ten shares hotel stock. Please mail me two subscription blanks.

Edward F. Goltra.

In his acknowledgement Mr. Dunlap said:

April 19, 1923.

I have just received your telegram informing me that Mr. Rolla Wells will also subscribe for ten shares of the new hotel stock and as requested in your telegram I am sending herewith two blanks to be used for his and your subscriptions. When the announcement of these subscriptions is made in the papers in Jacksonville I am sure the people here will greatly appreciate the very kind and liberal spirit which you both show to our city. I think I recall when Mr. Wells was here at commencement time he stopped at one of the hotels and I am sure if such is the case and he ever intended to visit Jacksonville again and be a hotel guest it would likely put him in the notion of subscribing for an enterprise of this character. I wish you would kindly give me Mr. Wells' address as I should like to write and thank him personally.

Assuring you that I was very much gratified to receive the subscriptions and with kind regards, I am

Very truly yours,

INDIAN INDEPENDENCE SURPRISES UNCLE SAM

Montana Tribe First in History to Become Actually Self-Supporting in Civilized Environment—Even Has a Flour Mill.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 19.—While the oil-land Indians of Oklahoma are idly wallowing in the inherited wealth of chance enjoying the distinction of being the richest red men of America, the Blackfeet tribe of Glacier National park reservation today has achieved a reputation for thrift that brings to its 3,000 members high compliments from the Indian department of the United States government. Last year these Indians raised so much wheat that the government built them a $65,000 grist mill to grind their grain for them.

This great wheat crop enabled Supt. F. P. Campbell to cancel the government ration allotment for 1923 and his wire to the Indian department to this effect created a bigger stir than any previous news relating to Indian affairs since their era of peaceful living.

The Blackfeet are diversifying in their agricultural efforts and have organized a grain and cattle association. The progress they have made in farming under the supervision of Supt. Campbell surpasses everything in the records of the Indian department in Washington.

It is the first time in the history of Uncle Sam's civilization of the Indian that a tribe has become really self supporting thru its own thrift.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Green of Strawn's Crossing were seen in the business district yesterday.

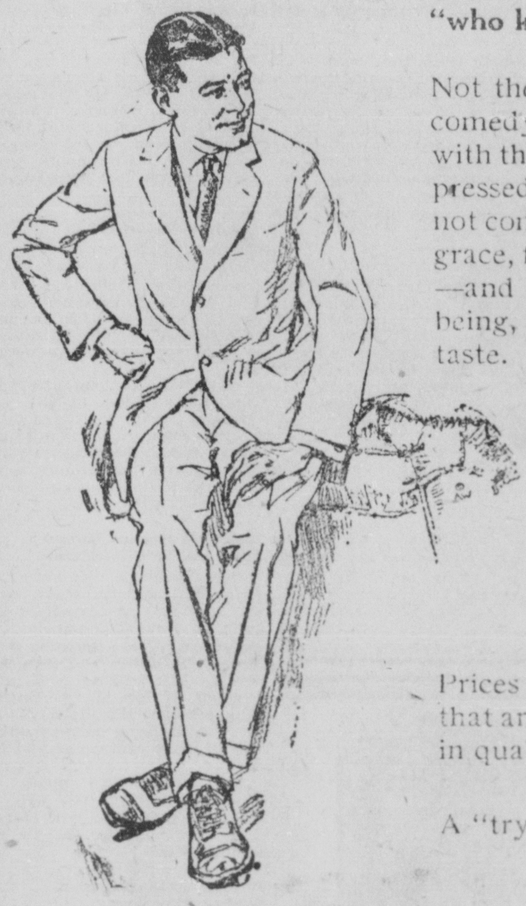

Mrs. Charles Ryan of Franklin spent the day in Jacksonville yesterday, on business.

ILLNOIS OPENS BASEBALL SEASON

Meets Normal University on Illinois Field Saturday Afternoon —Game Will Be Called at 2 O'clock

The Illinois college baseball season will open on Saturday afternoon at 2 p. m. when Normal university comes to the local field. This will be the third game for Normal and the first for the Illinois college boys. Consequently Normal will have a considerable advantage from the standpoint of experience. Normal has lost both games, however, and the Blue and White players hope to give the visiting team another set back. A week ago Normal lost to Eureka college in a heavy hitting contest and last Wednesday they were trounced by Wesleyan in a game featured by Normal's ragged fielding.

The Illinois college team will be a new lineup from start to bottom. No intercollegiate baseball was played last season and hence players were not developed. Not a single man who played two years ago is a candidate for the team this year. Most of the players are freshmen and altogether 40 men have drawn uniforms. From this bunch of players a team is being developed which gives promise of playing a good brand of baseball. The test of ball players is to put them into a real game. When Umpire Kohloff calls: "Play ball!" at 2 o'clock on Saturday afternoon the Illinois colege boys will get their baptism under fire and they feel they can take the measure of the Normal team.

SHILOH AID MET IN REGULAR SESSION

Mrs. Glenna Hall and daughter, Evalee were hostesses to the Shiloh Aid Thursday afternoon. The program opened with the singing of "My Savior's Love." Mrs. Louise Serviss read paper, her subject being, "A New Carpet." "Meteors come in flocks every 33 years," was the subject of a paper by Mrs. Stella Lindsay. A song, "Heavenly Sunlight," followed and then the benediction. The collection was $5.25. Eight guests were present. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Florence Paterson and Mrs. Florence McGee May 17. A social hour followed the refreshments.

Game is Slugging Match Punctuated by Four Home Runs—Kelleher Gets His Secand in Two Days.

CHICAGO, April 19.—Chicago made it two straight from Pittsburg today by winning a slugging match punctuated with four home runs, 10 to 5. Hack Miller's homer with two men on gave the locals the winning margin in the fourth inning and forced the retirement of the veteran Babe Ruth from the mound. Kelleher's homer was his second in two days.

Do you know Baseball?

by Billy Evans

Questions

ONE—If the two captains are unable to agree on certain ground rules what happens?

TWO—Can a batsman step out of the box after the pitcher has gotten into his position on the rubber ready to pitch.

THREE—With a runner on first, the batsman singles to right and the runner on first tries for third. With two umpires working, who gives the decision at third?

FOUR—Is it necessary for a pitcher to throw the ball to third or second, when he makes a feint to catch a runner at either of the two bases mentioned.

FIVE—Does the calling of a balk have any effect on the status of the batter? That is, can he go to first base in any situation which involves the calling of a balk

Answers

ONE—The umpire makes the ground rules, if the two captains are unable to reach a decision.

TWO—He is not supposed to, but conditions often arise that make it necessary. He should appeal to the umpire, who will always call time if the pitcher has not started his delivery.

THREE—The umpire working at the plate should give the decision at third.

FOUR—It is only necessary that a pitcher completes the throw to first, when he starts such an act. It is not necessary that he do so when making a feint to second or third.

FIVE—The calling of a balk in no way affects the status of the batsman. He can never go to first base on a called balk.

RETURNED SOLDIER WINS MARATHON RACE

BOSTON, April 19.—Clarence H. Demar of Melrose, 35 years old, who as a soldier back from the war surprised sports followers last year by winning the American marathon race in record time 11 years after his first success in the event, won it again today. His time of 2 hours, 23 minutes, 47 3-5 seconds set no new mark, but it was nearly two minutes faster than that of the runner-up, Frank Zuna of the Melrose A. A., New York, and his victory established him as the only man in the 27 years' history of this race to win it three times.

We are confident that the values we offer in base ball gloves cannot be duplicated.

PEACE DECLARED IN BOXING WAR

CHICAGO, April 19.—Peace was declared in the Chicago boxing war today when the local chapter of the National Sports Alliance agreed to delay 24 hours its matches scheduled for next Monday night. This leaves the way clear for another boxing exhibition also set for April 23, when Johnny Wilson, middleweight champion, will meet Italian Joe Gans, and Pal Moore will oppose Frankie Genaro, American flyweight champion.

Fear that the boxing sport will be dealt a mortal blow by the strife was said to have been responsible for the Sports Alliance fostered program being reset for April 24.

Jock Malone of St. Paul, a middleweight, will meet Jimmy Darcy of Portland, Ore., in the principal match of the fight show next Tuesday night at the Dexter Park pavilion.

Boxing has been carried on under the protection of injunctions preventinng interference by authorities and until today the rival promoters had planned to ask such court orders. But the belief spread among the boxing fraternity that an attempt to obtain two injunctions for two boxing exhibitions on the same night would meet with failure.

SEED CORN

THE COLUMBIANA FARMS AT ELDRED, ILLINOIS, Greene County, again have carefully selected and tested seed corn of strong germination for the Spring of 1923, which they produced in 1922, from DISEASE FREE SEED CORN, purchased from the FUNK BROTHERS SEED COMPANY at $10.00 per bushel. This corn is Yellow Dent, called Utility Type. The medium, smooth, well matured ears will give higher yields and better quality than the rough starchy corn which is later in maturity, lighter in weight, with inferior root development, more barren stalks, and has less vitality to resist unfavorable weather.

The corn will be distributed to farmers in Morgan County, Illinois,

FRANK BERG, at 72, says he feels like a youngster. He gives Tanlac credit for restoring his health.

"I am seventy-two years old, but Tanlac has fixed me up so fine I believe I could get busy with my trowel and lay brick as well as I ever did," recently stated Frank Berg,, well known resident of Parnell, Missouri.

"Before taking Tanlac, stomach trouble, constipation, headaches, dizziness, nervousness and sleeplessness was making life miserable for me and I was all run down.

"But the Tanlac treatment just tore down the old wall between me and good health and I'm mighty glad my wife is a good cook, for I have a rousing appetite now. My nerves have steadied down, too, and I'm sleeping and feeling fine. It's a pleasure to tell folks how good Tanlac is."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37 million bottles sold.

PAIR SHOULD BE PARTNERS

And Both Husband and Wife Ought to Be Permitted to Have Their Own Way at Times.

It is not so nearly true as it was years ago that men earn money and women spend it, but it is still considerably true. Men still have control of the chief agencies for wage-earning and earn most of the wages paid. Women have the spending of most of the money that is earned and brought home for the support of families. The chief end of man is still what the Westminster catechism says it is, but his next most important end is to satisfy women. Women are more contented when they have their own way a part of the time—so are men. Women's wishes should be dominant in certain departments of life, men's wishes in certain others; but there is no department of life in which women can afford to ignore the wishes of men, or men the wishes of women.

And so it is that in public as well as in private dealings between men and women persuasion works better than compulsion. Against exacting women men are instinctively on their guard. They usually avoid such women if they can. No men can afford to be driven by women into positions they do not approve of, and if they cannot run away they are likely to turn obstinate or worse. But most men are very open to persuasion, and if led around to look at a proposal from that point of view their objections to it may disappear.—Philadelphia Record.

RACING HORSES IN DESERT

Picturesque Scenes When Natives of Mesopotamia Gather for Their Favorite Sport.

Horseracing is a sport beloved by the natives of Mesopotamia. They swarm to the Basrah races, and the autumn meet of this Arab Epsom is a curious and diverting sight. A European innovation is the new brick grandstand with a substantial roof and benches spread with many-colored Persian rugs. Behind the grandstand are the wooden sheds roofed with matting to exclude the heat. Here the horses are stabled and here resort the trainers, stewards and the all-important "totalisator," with his hangers-on. The paddock is a patch of desert—like the course itself. Native gamblers also congregate around the sheds. They are shaggy and picturesque—at a distance. At close quarters they are indescribably dirty and ragged. They sit in circles in the dust, like a lot of dingy crows, heedless of the crowds surging around them as they make their game and choose their favorites for the race. The desert man is a reckless bidder, he stakes his all upon his favorite horse. In stoicism he resembles the American Indian, for whether he wins or loses his expression never changes.

Face Dangers to Deliver Mail.

In India the distribution of a great deal of mail matter is performed by runners. They are drawn largely from the lowest castes and least civilized races, and many of them are animists by religion. They are ready to face wild beasts and wandering criminals, but will go miles out of their way to avoid an evil spirit in a tree.

With them the mail bag is a kind of fetish, which must be protected at all costs. Dishonesty among them is very rare, and they are wonderfully true to their "salt," which seldom exceeds $5 a month. Not a year passes that does not take its toll of mail runners who lose their lives in the execution of their duty. It may be a tiger, a swollen river, an avalanche in the Himalayas, a gang of robbers. But the work goes on just the same—the mail must go through, whatever happens.

The Iliad Dramatic.

In Virgil's poetry a sense of the greatness of Rome and Italy is the leading motive of a passionate rhetoric, partly veiled by the "chosen delicacy" of his language. Dante and Milton are still more faithful exponents of the religion and politics of their time. But in Homer the interest is purely dramatic. There is no strong antipathy of race or religion; the war turns on no political event; the capture of Troy lies outside the range of the Iliad. Even the heroes are not the chief national heroes of Greece. The interest lies wholly (so far as we can see) in the picture of human action and feeling.—D. B. Munro.

Moist and Dry Air.

Dry air is slightly heavier than ordinary humid—not foggy air. The number of molecules in a given volume of air and the same volume of water in the form of invisible gas under the same conditions is the same. When such water molecules are introduced into the dry air a corresponding number of air molecules are displaced. The atomic weights of nitrogen, the principal ingredients of air, are greater than the atomic weight of water vapor. Therefore since a light substance replaces a heavier one the total weight is less. Foggy or smoky air is quite likely to be heavier than dry air.

Exercise and Change.

"So you've seen the doctor."

"Yes, and he ordered me to go up and down the front stairs for an hour in the forenoon and up and down the back stairs for an hour in the afternoon."

"Why the back stairs?"

"Oh, just for a change of climb it."—Boston Evening Transcript.

Silence Was Golden.

"Malachi," asked Mr. Casey, "can your wife cook as well as your mother did?"

"She cannot," replied Malachi, "but, my friend, I never mention it, for she can throw considerably better."—London Weekly Telegraph.

COMMENDS MR. OSBORNE

Tucson, Ariz.
April 16, 1923

Editor Journal:

I am pleased to see that my greatly esteemed friend, J. E. Osborne, is again a candidate for county commissioner. It is a compliment to any community when men like him are willing to make such a sacrifice for the general good. The salary he gets is small compensation for the service he renders and far less than he would make were he not a member of the board.

His candidacy is in keeping with the spirit that has been actuating Jacksonville for the past few years with such admirable results and I trust he will have a large majority at the polls.

Yours for the welfare of Morgan county where so much of my life has been happily spent.

S. W. Nichols.

Dr. W. B. Young and Dr. R. R. Buckthorpe returned from St. Louis Wednesday night where they went to attend a meeting of the Missouri Dental Society. WEAR ALL CLOTHES LOOSE

Tight-Fitting Articles of Apparel Unknown Among the Eskimos—Their Boots Waterproof.

The Eskimo makes a point of wearing the loosest garments imaginable, and no tight-fitting underclothes. Authorities agree that it is largely because of this that the Eskimos are the hardiest race in the world. As babies they go unclothed, being carried about in hoods of their mother's furs.

The Eskimos' feet also receive great care. Their women are credited with making the only absolutely waterproof boot in existence. It is made of sealskin, without the fur, "tanned" and kept pliable by chewing. The parts are sewn together with deer sinews in a lockstitch which no other race seems to understand. Within this boot of "chewed" sealskin a deerskin sock is worn, the hair being next to the foot. Sock and boot come off together, and every night they are dried on a framework rigged above an igloo oil lamp which is kept burning constantly for this purpose and for the melting of snow for drinking water.

THINKS THIS CRUEL WORLD

Absolutely No Pleasing Everybody, According to Wail Made by the Elevator Man.

"It's a hard life," complained the elevator man, says a writer for the New York Sun. "Lots of kicks and never a friendly word. My orders are to wait until the car is full, but does that matter to most of 'em? It's 'Please start up; I'm in a hurry!' and all that. Even though I may have only two or three others in the car.

"And then, when the car's full and I try to close the door, it's 'Wait a minute. Room for one more?' When I tell 'em to take the next car they get peeved. And women are the worst of all."

The car was filled up. The operator closed the door. His hand was on the starting lever. A woman rushed up. "Room for one more?" she cried.

"Sorry, lady; full car!"

"Why, there is plenty of room!" she called back. "It's perfectly outrageous. I'll report—"

But by then the elevator had traveled out of hearing distance.

Who Is Fastest Typist?

Men are more rapid typists than women. Men are slower typists than women. Doctor J. McKeer Cattell, president of the Psychological corporation, believes that these apparently contradictory statements are true, although the question cannot be definitely determined until sufficiently large groups of men and women have been examined and compared.

But the typist of exceptional speed would be more likely to be a man, Dr. Cattell says, for it has been demonstrated that men are more variable than women. Men are more frequently color blind than women, but the great colorists have been men as are the great performers on the piano and violin. This difference extends to the lower animals. The male bird or mammal is more brightly colored and variously ornamented and armed than the female.

Sheet Fleeces Like Robes.

A wool market is held annually at Patseo, in the wilds of Tibet. The Tibetan owners of sheep barter the fleece of their flocks for Indian tea and rice and cotton goods. These sheep cannot live below 10,000 feet above sea level, and as their wool is in great demand the traders have to bring their commodities on pack ponies, mules and donkeys right up into the heart of the mountains.

About the middle of July the traders, both parties, converge onto a high valley some 13,000 feet above sea-level, and there pitch their respective camps. The Tibetan sheep obligingly carry their own wool to the shearing ground and emerge slim and shorn from a mass of fleece, which looks like buffalo robes. These fleeces are rolled into as small a compass as possible after being wound with tight ropes, and are baled onto the pack animals.

Designing the Great Seal.

Some time ago an account was given of how the great seal of the United States was designed. Franklin, Adams and Jefferson were appointed to select a device on a certain well-remembered day—July 4, 1776, no less, and there was much discussion regarding that important matter, Franklin wanted a design of Moses dividing the Red sea and submerging the hosts of Pharaoh, with the motto, "Rebellion against tyrants is obedience to God." Adams suggested Hercules and his club, while Jefferson preferred the guiding of the children of Israel. Afterward the making of the seal passed into other hands and it was not until June 20, 1782, that the great seal of America with the eagle as it is today was finally accepted.

America's Oldest Coal Mines.

The oldest coal mines in America are those in the bituminous fields near Richmond, Va. In 1760, anthracite coal was discovered in Rhode Island, and, two years later, settlers from Connecticut discovered anthracite in the Wyoming valley of Pennsylvania. The rich beds of the Schuylkill were discovered in 1770. Five years later the government of Pennsylvania floated coal down the Susquehanna to Harrisburg, then known as Harris Ferry, and hauled it by wagon to the arsenal at Carlisle for use in the manufacture of ammunition.

MANY IMPROVEMENTS AT SCHOOL FOR DEAF

Permanent improvements are taking place at the school for the deaf, as fast as time and appropriations will allow and things are gradually rounding into fine shape. A new concrete walk running along the north side of the lawn and thence diagonally to the front of the administration building is almost complete.

The preparatory work was done by the boys of the Athletic association, and the managing officer plans to imprint this fact in the concrete, as a memorial. The mixing and finishing are being done by J. W. Baptist & Son. A fine oak stairway, leading from the main building hall to the second floor is in course of construction by W. J. Brooks, of the carpenter force. The old stairway, which has been in use ever since the construction of the main building, was made of the finest of genuine white pine, which is quite rare in these days.

FARM BUREAU NOTES

Unusual Demand for Soy Beans.

Three years ago a farmer would order a bushel or two of soybeans for a trial. This spring every one is buying in quantities. Yesterday there were numerous requests for 5 and 6 bushel lots. Nicholas Schirz of Franklin was the biggest buyer, hauling home forty bushels. Soybeans bid fair to supplant a large part of the oats crop.

The heaviest demand is for the Ebony and Sable varieties, and if an ample supply of seed could be secured the Bureau could easily dispose of at least one hundred bushels at the present time.

Wheat prospects throughout the county are very good.

A corn-testing demonstration for disease-free seed will be held Wednesday April 25, at 10 a. m. by Mr. Kendall at the farm of Harrison Robinson, near Prentice.

At present there is a great scarcity of farm hands in Morgan county, especially married men. Bureau now has on file eight applications for married men, and there are many others who have not made formal aplication. The pay ranges from forty to forty-five dollars per month with the usual "trimmin's."

Community Pig Clubs Instead of County Pig Clubs.

Lester Reed thinks a local club in a community with a local leader is a better project for the farm bureau to foster than a county-wide club with every member living up the the rules or violating them as he sees fit. A pig club for boys and girls that does not call with it any educational value is of extremely doubtful value. It is certainly gratifying to see a breeder take this broad view of club work. This is not intended to disperage Junior Livestock Contests at the county fair. They have their place.

George Fox, of rural route No. 6, has nominated a litter of nine pigs for the Ton-litter Club, and McCarthy and Wheeler of Concord have a litter of ten in their nomination.

Serving Two Masters.

The most of the farm advisers began work when the U. S. department of Agriculture and state College of Agriculture co-operated in the work. Three years ago when the farm bureau federated in the state and national organizations with another corps of officers and committees anxious to do things differently and the farm adviser or county agent found the responsibility of his job greatly increased. While these two lines exercise only mild authority in Illinois, the thoughtful reader will see that trying to serve two masters is no snap.

TIMELY RHYMES

1st. verse.

South door, north door,
Front porch or back,
Boys slip around upon Pussy's track.
Your yard, their yard, neighbor's yard, mine,
Kitty's being chased, and boys think it's fine.
Pull her and haul her,
But get her alive—
Hear silver jingle,
She's worth thirty-five.
Steal her? Yes, steal her,
No one questions "where"
Or where is her owner "just so she is there."
Hearing no warning,
Boys do the square thing,
But gather up kittens—
Thirty-five they will bring.

2nd. Verse.

Perhaps in the future,
When they're calling you "bad"
You will remember the time
When your heart was made glad;
When three dimes and a nickle rewarded you fair,
When you brought in the cats from "no matter where."
And if in the future,
You play a bad game,
Who set the example—
Who's really to blame?

Market Report

By The Associated Press

ESTIMATE SHORTAGE IN WINTER WHEAT CROP

CHICAGO, April 19—With estimates current that the domestic winter crop of wheat this year would be 46,000,000 bushels less that was harvested in 1922 and that Nebraska prospects were for only one third to a half crop, the wheat market today developed fresh strength. Prices closed firm ⅝c to 1¼c net higher, May $1.25⅞ to $1.26 and July $1.24½ to 1.24⅝. Corn gained ½@⅝ to 1c, and oats 1@1⅛c to ⅝c. In provisions the outcome was 12c to 22c decline.

Highest prices of the day in the wheat market were attained after reports were out indicating that abandonment of winter wheat plantings this season would total 6,982,000 acres, and would be more than 5 per cent in excess of a ten year average, including the heavy abandonment of 31 per cent in 1917. Besides, word of high winds and dust storms were received from parts of Nebraska, Kansas and Oklahoma. Predictions of reduced acreage of spring wheat, especially in South Dakota, attracted notice too, altho better weather northwest than has prevailed of late counted as something of an offset.

Active buying for eastern account was a feature in the wheat market as the day drew to an end. In this connection it was noted that 700,000 bushels were announced as having been taken for shipment to Europe and that the Liverpool market today had shown unexpected strength owing apparently to a forecast of decreased shipments from Argentina.

On the other hand primary receipts in the United States continued to surpass in the volume the corresponding totals of last week and a year ago.

Corn and oats rose with wheat.

Furthermore, prospects were for continued scantiness of corn receipts here.

Provisions reflected a downturn in land prices at Liverpool.

CASH SALES OF WHEAT SMALL

CHICAGO, April 19.— Wheat closed unchanged to ⅛c lower in price today with trading basis unchanged ½c better on red grades and unchanged to ⅛c lower for hard and yellow hard. Spring wheat was unchanged. Cash sales here were only 6,000 bushels. The seaboard reported 700,000 bushels of wheat worked for Europe, mostly Manitobas.

Corn closed unchanged to ⅛c better in price.

Premiums were unchanged to ½ cents higher on mixed grades, unchanged on yellow to ⅛c better on white. Cash sales here were 156,000 bushels including 25,000 bushels to exporters. The seaboard estimated 200,000 bushels as having been worked for export.

Oats closed unchanged in price with premiums unchanged to ⅛c higher, the latter for No. 2 white. Cash sales here were 115,000 bushels.

FINANCIAL.

Day's total sales 786,500 shares.

Twenty industrials averaged 102.58; net gain .34.

High 1923 — 105.38; low 96.96.

Twenty railroads averaged 88.00; net loss .56.

High 1923 — 90.63; low 84.53.

Total bond sales (par value) $10,441,000.

NEW YORK, April 19. — The rising tendency of prices was checked shortly after the opening of today's stock market by the announcement of governmental proceedings to prevent speculation in raw sugar. Sugar stocks, which had advanced 1 to 1⅞ points in the first hour dropped one to three points when the government's action became known but they rallied slightly before the close.

Prices in the general list yielded in sympathy and there was a marked reduction in the volume of trading. Prices pursued an uneven course during the rest of the session with bullish demonstrations in the coppers, American Can and California Petroleum, counteracted by heavy offerings of some of the other oils, investment rails and a few specialties.

Stewart Warner speedometer which has been heavily bought lately on speculative expectations of an increase in the dividend, broke nearly four points to 118 and then rallied to 119½.

Kresege jumped 13½ points on a turnover of 200 shares.

Call money opened at 5 per cent but softened to 4½ during the afternoon.

The time money market was quiet. A few short time loans were arranged at 5 per cent.

Foreign exchanges held fairly steady.

CANTILEVERS ARE ALL-DAY SHOES

It's not hard to find a pair of shoes that are comfortable as you walk down town in the morning, fresh and untired; but it's quite a different matter to find a pair that will be equally easy on your feet after a long, tiring day.

Cantilevers are specially designed to give support that will prevent extreme foot-fatigue, and for this reason will be as comfortable at night as when you first put them on.

Comfort and foot well-being are the most important results of wearing Cantilevers, but they have the added advantage of looking smart for tailored wear at all times. The flexible Cantilever arch, that gives with every movement of your foot, will make you unconscious of wearing shoes at all, except for the comforting assurance of being well-shod.

CAMP CUSTER OFFERS MANY ADVANTAGES

Third Annual Citizen Military Training Camp Will be Conducted Thus Summer — Dr. Garm Norbury is County Representative.

The third annual Citizens Military Training Camp for the Seate of Illinois, Wisconsin and Michigan will be opened August 1st at Camp Custer near Battle Creek, Michmigan and the courses for the Red, Advanced Red, Blue and White Courses will last four weeks. There are twenty-five of these camps throughout the United States 24 of them under the control of the United States Government assisted by the Military Training Camps Association.

Noble Brandon Judah of Chicago is Civilian Aide for the Corps Area and James Simpson of Chicago is Civilian Aide for the state of Illinois.

The M. T. C. A. representative for Morgan county is Dr. Garm Norbury of Jacksonville, and applications for the course may be obtained from him. Free physical examination for the applicants will be given by the following:

Dr. W. H. Allyn, of Waverly.

Dr. Frank P. Norbury, of Jacksonville.

Dr. Paul R. Allyn, of Waverly.

As Camp Custer accommodations are limited each county can be allotted only a certain quota of the total that can be taken care of at the camp. The quota for Morgan county is 13.

The first or Basic Red Course is open to all men between the ages of 17 and 24 years inclusive, who are of sound character, intelligence and physical condition. No education qualifications are prescribed for this course and the men who take it do not incur any future service obligations, altho it is hoped that all will be inclined later to associate themselves with the Natiolal Guard of the Organized Reserves. Each candidate must have a certificate of character signed on his application blank by some prominent or reputable citizen.

All expenses are paid by the government, including transportation, uniforms, food and medical care. The daily program calls for a certain amount of militry drill, coupled with physical training and many kinds of out-door games. Ample facilities are afforded for swimming, baseball, handball, tennis and other sports.

The training at Camp Custer will be carried on in the spirit that infused Plattsburg and will aim at developing health and good citizenship. All young men who desire to attend Camp Custer should make immediate application to the county chairman for the necessary information circulars and enrollment blanks.
